Community Notices

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Hamilton

I'm Sue McAllister from an organisation called Big Brothers Big Sisters of Hamilton. In my role as case manager of this programme I recruit volunteer mentors from the community to match with young people. We are looking for fun, safe, consistent and reliable adults to mentor children aged between 7-12 years. The role of our mentors is to be a fun adult friend. Through everyday interactions our mentors teach young people how to grow into good men and women.

We welcome enquiries from both men and women. We have a real need at the moment for good role models for young boys. If there are any men keen to help out a young person we would love to hear from them.

Thank you for your time.
Sue
