Earlier this year we had one of our BoT members vacate their position due to other commitments. We then put out a pānui advising that this had happened and to get an indication from the whānau whether we should hold a by-election. Due to the awesome amount of interest the Poari confirmed at our hui last week that we will follow this process. Therefore we have appointed Whaea Cherie Dennis as our Returning Officer. She will be looking after this kaupapa until it's completed.

UNISS 2021:

We are very grateful to Whaea Pua Phillips and Whaea Gail Bosmann-Watene who will be taking our team to UNISS 2021. Our team leaves on Sunday 29/08, returning to Hamilton on Friday 03/09.

Please find there will be trials to select the team to attend UNISS which is open to any player who wants to try to make the squad. These will be held in the first week of next Term 3 on Wednesday 28/07 and Thursday 29/07 from 3.30-5.30 pm at Kura.

The cost to attend the tournament will be approximately $400 per player however we are very fortunate as we have had a very generous offer of a koha and there will also be the option of a fundraiser. This will help to subsidise the fee which will reduce the cost per player.

These are just some things to consider if you are wishing to trial for the UNISS team e te whaanau. If you have any patai, please contact Whaea Lucy Hona or Matua Romana Rolleston.

To get these cheaper fares:

1. Get a Bee Card
2. Create your account online

4. Tag on and off the bus
5. Once you use the bus eight times a week, every trip following is free!
